Epiphany 2 – January 18, 2026

Identity Revealed: Jesus is the Lamb of God

For centuries Israel offered sacrifices to God for sin. Over and over, a substitute shed its blood as the price for forgiveness.

Then Jesus appears, the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world. He comes to bear the sin of mankind. He fulfills all righteousness with his perfect life. He comes to die as the substitute for sinful mankind.

In faith we hold onto his forgiveness and are covered in his righteousness. In faith we cling to Jesus as our Savior and our Substitute.

Connected to him by faith, you have new perspective and new motivation for loving and serving Jesus with a Christian life.

Opening Hymn

Invocation

The grace of our Lord + Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you.

And also with you.

*During our services,
the congregation
speaks the responses
in bold.*

Confession of Sins

We have come into the presence of God, who created us to love and serve him as his dear children. But we have disobeyed him and deserve only his wrath and punishment. Therefore, let us confess our sins to him and plead for his mercy.

Merciful Father in heaven, I am altogether sinful from birth. In countless ways I have sinned against you and do not deserve to be called your child. But trusting in Jesus, my Savior, I pray: Have mercy on me according to your unfailing love. Cleanse me from my sin, and take away my guilt.

Silence for meditation.

God, our heavenly Father, has forgiven all your sins. By the perfect life and innocent death of our Lord Jesus Christ, he has removed your guilt forever. You are his own dear child. May God give you strength to live according to his will.

Amen.

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God, you gave your only-begotten Son to be the light of the world. Grant that your people, illumined by your Word and sacraments, may shine with the radiance of Christ's glory, that he may be known, worshiped, and believed to the ends of the earth; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord, who with you and the Holy Spirit lives and reigns, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Be seated.

First Reading

Isaiah 49:1-6

God displays his splendor by the suffering of the Servant of the Lord.

¹Listen to me, you coastlands.
Pay attention, you faraway peoples!
The LORD called me from the womb.
When I was inside my mother, he mentioned my name.
²He made my mouth like a sharpened sword.
He hid me in the shadow of his hand.
He made me a polished arrow.
He concealed me in his quiver.
³He said to me, "You are my servant Israel,
in whom I will display my glory."

⁴But I said to myself, "I have labored in vain.
I spent my strength and came up empty, with nothing.
Yet a just verdict for me rests with the LORD,
and my reward is with my God."

⁵But now the LORD,
 who formed me from the womb to be his servant,
 to turn Jacob back to him,
 so that Israel might be gathered to him,
 so that I will be honored in the eyes of the LORD,
 because my God has been my strength—

⁶the LORD said:
It is too small a thing that you should just be my servant
 to raise up only the tribes of Jacob
 and to restore the ones I have preserved in Israel,
 so I will appoint you to be a light for the nations,
 so that my salvation will be known to the end of the earth.

The Word of the Lord.
Thanks be to God.

The Lamb, the Lamb, let earth join heav'n his praise to sing.

Refrain

Second Reading

Colossians 2:6-15

The Lamb of God was flesh and blood so he could be sacrificed to win forgiveness of all our sins.

⁶Therefore, just as you received Christ Jesus as Lord, continue to walk in him, ⁷by being rooted and built up in him, and strengthened in the faith just as you were taught, while you overflow in faith with thanksgiving.

⁸See to it that no one takes you captive through philosophy and empty deceit, which are in accord with human tradition, namely, the basic principles of the world, but not in accord with Christ. ⁹For all the fullness of God's being dwells bodily in Christ. ¹⁰And you have been brought to fullness in him. Christ is the head over every ruler and authority. ¹¹You were also circumcised in him, with a circumcision not done by human hands, in the putting off of the body of flesh, in the circumcision of Christ, ¹²when you were buried with Christ in baptism. And in baptism you were also raised with him through the faith worked by the God who raised Christ from the dead.

¹³Even when you were dead in your trespasses and the uncircumcision of your flesh, God made you alive with Christ by forgiving us all our trespasses.

¹⁴God erased the record of our debt brought against us by his legal demands. This record stood against us, but he took it away by nailing it to the cross.

¹⁵After disarming the rulers and authorities, he made a public display of them by triumphing over them in Christ.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

John 1:29-41

²⁹The next day, John saw Jesus coming toward him and said, "Look! The Lamb of God, who takes away the sin of the world! ³⁰This is the one I was talking about when I said, 'The one coming after me outranks me because he existed before me.' ³¹I myself did not know who he was, but I came baptizing with water so that he would be revealed to Israel."

³²John also testified, "I saw the Spirit descend like a dove from heaven and remain on him. ³³I myself did not recognize him, but the one who sent me to baptize with water said to me, 'The one on whom you see the Spirit descend and remain, he is the one who will baptize with the Holy Spirit.' ³⁴I saw this myself and have testified that this is the Son of God."

³⁵The next day, John was standing there again with two of his disciples.

³⁶When John saw Jesus passing by, he said, "Look! The Lamb of God!" ³⁷The two disciples heard him say this, and they followed Jesus.

³⁸When Jesus turned around and saw them following him, he asked, "What are you looking for?"

As the last and greatest of the prophets, John beautifully summarizes God's plan of salvation by pointing to Jesus and calling him the Lamb of God.

They said to him, “Rabbi” (which means “Teacher”), “where are you staying?”

³⁹He told them, “Come, and you will see.” So they came and saw where he was staying. They stayed with him that day. It was about the tenth hour.

⁴⁰Andrew, Simon Peter's brother, was one of the two who heard John and followed Jesus. ⁴¹The first thing Andrew did was to find his own brother Simon and say to him, “We have found the Messiah!” (which is translated “the Christ”).

The Gospel of our Lord.
Praise be to you, O Christ!

John 1:29–41

The Lamb asks what you are looking for

The Apostles' Creed

I believe in God, the Father Almighty, maker of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, born of the Virgin Mary, suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. The third day he rose again from the dead. He ascended into heaven and is seated at the right hand of God the Father Almighty. From there he will come to judge the living and the dead.

I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Be seated.

Prayer of the Church

Gracious Father in heaven, you do not desire the death of the wicked, but that all should repent, turn from evil, and find forgiveness and salvation. In love you sent your only-begotten Son to bear our sin and to bring us salvation. You sent him to be the Savior of the world, the Redeemer of all mankind, and the hope of people of every nation. As we see the gift of your Son revealed, together with John the Baptist we proclaim:

Lamb of God, _____ you take a - way____ the____
sin of the world; have mer - cy on us.

Lord Jesus, you were revealed at your baptism in the River Jordan as the chosen Christ of God, our Rescuer and our Redeemer. Your perfect obedience to all of the law of God has earned righteousness in our place. Your healing touch of love revealed the tender mercy and compassion of the Father to the downtrodden and the despairing. By your suffering on the cross you bore the burden of the sin of the world, and in your death you shed your blood as the price of redemption for all the human race. We look to you, our Savior and Friend, and with John the Baptist we proclaim:

Lamb of God, _____ you take a - way____ the____
sin of the world; have mer - cy on us.

O Holy Spirit, you anointed Jesus of Nazareth with the seal of God's approval, revealing him as the Son of God and the Savior of the nations. You have opened our eyes to see and believe that in Christ alone is our salvation and hope. We pray that you would allow the Good News of salvation to ring out in every region of the globe. Turn hearts everywhere from darkness in unbelief to the light of faith in truth. Bring your gift of free forgiveness to people of all generations, so that in the end there may be people of every nation, tribe and language joining in the eternal song of praise to the Lamb who was slain and who with his blood redeemed people for God. It is because you enable us to confess that we proclaim along with John the Baptist:

Lamb of God, you take a way the sin of the world; grant us your peace. Amen.

Special prayers and petitions may be said.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

Be seated.

Prayer for Grace

O Lord God, our heavenly Father, pour out the Holy Spirit on your faithful people. Keep us strong in your grace and truth, protect and comfort us in all temptation, and bestow on us your saving peace, through Jesus Christ, our Lord, who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

The Blessing

Brothers and sisters, go in peace. Live in harmony with one another.
Serve the Lord with gladness.

The Lord bless you and keep you.
The Lord make his face shine on you and be gracious to you.
The Lord look on you with favor and + give you peace.
Amen.
