WELCOME TO ONLINE WORSHIP

Thank you for joining us online today. May the Word of God that you hear strengthen your faith and increase your desire to serve the Lord!

The world may be in a state of panic, but the Church of Jesus is a place of refuge where we know God's peace. We gather today to hear God's Word and to rejoice in his message of comfort and forgiveness, of life and salvation. We are honored that you are joining us for our online worship.

- This service folder will enable you to follow along and participate in the service wherever you are. You are also welcome to use your personal hymnal and Bible at home.
 - You may wish to sing along with the hymns or simply reflect upon the text – this is the beauty of our hymns with a strong, Christ-centered message!
- If there is any other way in which we can assist you, please let us know.

ADVENT 1 — NOVEMBER 27, 2022

Come Lord Jesus — as King!

The Latin word adventus means “coming.” The last words in Scripture are “Come, Lord Jesus!” This season of Advent begins with the end in mind, when Jesus will come and destroy this sin-broken world.

If Jesus and his angels are coming to destroy the universe with fire (2 Peter 3), why would we cry out, “Come, Lord Jesus”?

Because we know that Jesus came into our world once before! The Son of God became the Son of Man. From the manger to the cross Jesus did everything necessary to redeem mankind. When Christ comes again, while this present world will be destroyed, we know God's people will be welcomed into a new, glorious, eternal kingdom.

Advent is necessary for us to understand the true meaning of Christmas. Advent allows us to see that because of what Jesus did the first time, we need not fear when he comes again. Instead, we long for it.

And so we pray: “Come, Lord Jesus!”

Invocation

The grace of our Lord + Jesus Christ and the love of God and the fellowship of the Holy Spirit be with you all.

Amen.

Confession and Absolution for Advent

Prepare the way for the LORD, make straight in the wilderness a highway for our God.

Every valley shall be raised up, every mountain and hill made low.

The rough ground shall become level, the rugged places a plain.

And the glory of the LORD will be revealed, and all mankind together will see it.

Dear friends, one day Christ will come in glory to deliver his people. Therefore, let us prepare our hearts to meet him by humbly seeking his forgiveness.

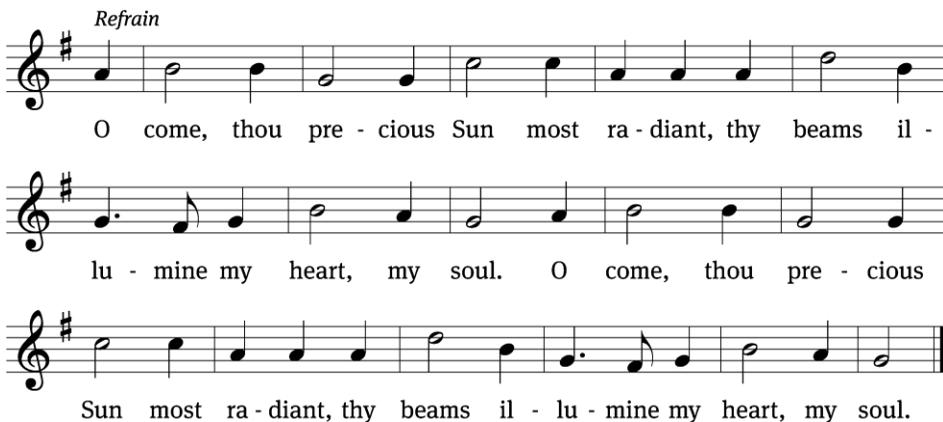

Holy and merciful Father, I confess that I am by nature sinful and that I have disobeyed you in my thoughts, words, and actions. I have done what is evil and failed to do what is good. For this I deserve your punishment both now and in eternity. But I am truly sorry for my sins, and trusting in my Savior Jesus Christ, I pray: Lord, have mercy on me, a sinner.

All mankind has seen the salvation of our God. Christ came in human flesh to redeem our fallen race. With his perfect life, he kept the law in your place. With his innocent death, he paid for your sins. Christ now comes to you through the word of his called servant:

I forgive you all your sins in the name of the Father and of the Son + and of the Holy Spirit.

Amen.

Refrain

O come, thou pre - cious Sun most ra - dant, thy beams il -
 lu - mine my heart, my soul. O come, thou pre - cious
 Sun most ra - dant, thy beams il - lu - mine my heart, my soul.

Lighting of the Advent wreath

We light one Advent candle, remembering Jesus, who is coming again. He will come to gather his people from everywhere, both the living and the dead.

We remember Jesus, who will come at the end of time. None of us knows what day that will be.

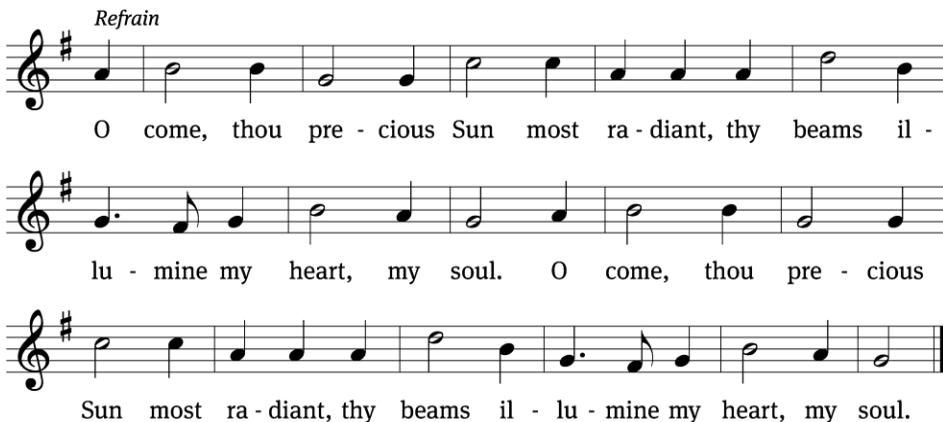

We hear his call to watch.

We light one Advent candle as a sign of our watchfulness and waiting.

Come, Lord Jesus, be our guest.

Through your Word and Spirit may our souls be blessed.

Refrain

O come, thou pre - cious Sun most ra - dant, thy beams il -

 Sun most ra - dant, thy beams il - lu - mine my heart, my soul.

Salutation

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Prayer of the Day

Let us pray.

Stir up your power, O Lord, and come. Protect us by your strength, and save us from the threatening dangers of our sins; for you live and reign with the Father and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

First Reading

Isaiah 2:1-5

This is the message that Isaiah son of Amoz saw concerning Judah and Jerusalem.

²This will take place in the latter days: The mountain of the LORD's house will be established as the chief of the mountains. It will be raised above the hills, and all nations will stream to it like a river. ³Many peoples will come and say, "Come, let us go up to the mountain of the LORD, to the house of the God of Jacob. Then he will instruct us about his ways, and we will walk in his paths." For from Zion the law will go out, and the LORD's word will go out from Jerusalem. ⁴He will judge between the nations, and he will mediate for many peoples. Then they will beat their swords into plowshares, and their spears into blades for trimming vines. Nation will not lift up sword against nation, nor will they learn war anymore.

⁵O house of Jacob, come, and let us walk in the light of the LORD.

When the king comes we will walk in the light of the LORD.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Second Reading

Philippians 4:4-7

We rejoice in Christ now, and we will rejoice when we see our King face to face.

⁴ Rejoice in the Lord always! I will say it again: Rejoice! ⁵ Let your gentleness be known to everyone. The Lord is near. ⁶ Do not worry about anything, but in everything, by prayer and petition, with thanksgiving, let your requests be made known to God. ⁷ And the peace of God, which surpasses all understanding, will guard your hearts and your minds in Christ Jesus.

The Word of the Lord.

Thanks be to God.

Gospel

Matthew 21:1–11

As they approached Jerusalem and came to Bethphage on the Mount of Olives, Jesus sent two disciples, ² telling them, “Go to the village ahead of you. Immediately you will find a donkey tied there along with her colt. Untie them and bring them to me. ³ If anyone says anything to you, you are to say, ‘The Lord needs them,’ and he will send them at once.”

On Palm Sunday the people rejoiced, as they welcomed Jesus their King into Jerusalem.

⁴ This took place to fulfill what was spoken through the prophet:

⁵ Tell the daughter of Zion: Look, your King comes to you, humble, and riding on a donkey, on a colt, the foal of a donkey.

⁶ The disciples went and did just as Jesus commanded them. ⁷ They brought the donkey and the colt, laid their outer clothing on them, and he sat on it. ⁸ A very large crowd spread their outer clothing on the road. Others were cutting branches from the trees and spreading them out on the road. ⁹ The crowds who went in front of him and those who followed kept shouting,

Hosanna to the Son of David!

Blessed is he who comes in the name of the Lord!

Hosanna in the highest!

¹⁰ When he entered Jerusalem, the whole city was stirred up, asking, “Who is this?” ¹¹ And the crowds were saying, “This is Jesus, the prophet from Nazareth in Galilee.”

The Gospel of the Lord.

Praise be to you, O Christ!

Preface

The Lord be with you.
And also with you.

Lift up your hearts.
We lift them up to the Lord.

Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.
It is right to give him thanks and praise.

Proper Preface

It is truly good and right that we should at all times and in all places give you thanks, O Lord, holy Father, almighty and everlasting God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, whose way John the Baptist prepared when he called people to repentance and pointed to Jesus as the Lamb of God who takes away the sin of the world.

Therefore, with all the saints on earth and hosts of heaven, we praise your holy name and join their glorious song:

Prayer of Thanksgiving

Blessed are you, Lord God, eternal King and gracious Father. In love you made us the crown of your creation. In mercy you planned our salvation. In grace you sent your Son to redeem us from sin.

We remember and give you thanks that your eternal Son, Jesus Christ, became flesh and made his dwelling among us, that he willingly placed himself under law to redeem those under law, that he humbled himself by becoming obedient to death on a cross, that he has destroyed death and has brought life and immortality to light through the gospel.

Bless us as we receive your Son's body and blood in this Sacrament. Forgive our sins, increase our faith, strengthen our fellowship, and deepen our longing for the day when Christ will welcome us to his eternal feast. Praise and thanks and honor and glory be to you, O God our Father, and to your Son and to the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Amen.

Lord's Prayer

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name, your kingdom come, your will be done on earth as in heaven. Give us today our daily bread. Forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us. Lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil. For the kingdom, the power, and the glory are yours now and forever. Amen.

Jesus taught his disciples to pray the Lord's Prayer. He invites us to come to our heavenly Father boldly and confidently.

Words of Institution

Our Lord Jesus Christ, on the night he was betrayed, took bread; and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to his disciples, saying, "Take and eat; this is my + body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me."

Then he took the cup, gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, "Drink from it, all of you; this is my + blood of the new covenant, which is poured out for you for the forgiveness of sins. Do this, whenever you drink it, in remembrance of me."

The peace of the Lord be with you always.

Amen.

Distribution

For our distribution today, you may approach the altar using the side aisles. The two sides will meet at the bottom step in the middle. For those who prefer a gluten-free wafer, please indicate such to the pastor when he distributes the bread. The gluten-free wafers are in a soufflé cup on the paten. We will dismiss down the center aisle.

Members and any guests who have spoken with a pastor prior to the service about receiving Communion may come forward at the direction of the ushers.

Midweek Advent worship

This Wednesday, November 30, we will begin our midweek Advent worship services. Join the pre-service medley of seasonal songs to get into the holiday spirit, and let your heart soar in anticipation of welcoming our coming Savior!

Midweek Advent worship

- Wednesday, November 30, at 3:30 and 6:30 p.m.
- Wednesday, December 7, at 3:30 and 6:30 p.m.
- Wednesday, December 14, at 3:30 and 6:30 p.m.

Christmas invitation handout on December 3

Can you join us for about an hour this Saturday, December 3, to help hand out Christmas invitations in our neighborhood? We will meet at 9:00 a.m. at church, pick up our pre-packaged bundles of invitations, and place them in the doors of homes nearby. You'll get a little exercise as you share an invitation to Christmas worship at Emmanuel. For more information speak with Pastor Buchholz, (602) 377-1915 or jonbuchholz@msn.com.

Christmas caroling

Due to lack of approval from the city of Tempe (our application arrived too late), we unfortunately have to cancel the Christmas caroling at Tempe Marketplace on Sunday, December 4. Watch for other opportunities.

A Service of Lessons and Carols

Any interested singer is warmly welcomed to once again join the adult choir for a special evening full of the Christmas gospel. This Service of Lessons and Carols is on Christmas Eve at 3:30 and 5:00 p.m. Depending on your comfort level, you could come only to rehearsals in December, if you so choose. All music and recordings are ready for you. For more information contact Kevin Bode at kbode@elstempe.org or at (480) 694-3532.

Aluminum can recycling

Aluminum cans will continue to be collected during demolition and construction. The new drop-off location will be on the east side of the large mobile storage unit by the front of school. Look for the red collection bin and place your bags of cans inside.

Connection card

During the offering we ask that you complete an online connection card.

Pancake breakfast on November 27

Join us today Sunday, November 27, for a pancake breakfast. Breakfast will be served in the fellowship hall from about 7:30 a.m. until 11:00 a.m. Bring only a hearty appetite, and come ready for a delicious breakfast of pancakes and sausage. This will be the last fellowship event held in our old fellowship hall. The demolition process is scheduled to begin tomorrow, November 28.

Mission to the Children gift gathering

This year our congregation is once again gathering gifts for distribution to families in northern Sonora, Mexico. This year we will be compiling one gift box per family, and families can mix and match what they need. Each gift box will include the following:

- A soccer ball
- A small stuffed animal
- A pair of socks
- A quart-sized Ziploc bag of candy.

These are the items we are collecting. Then to each box Mission to the Children will add a Bible in pictures and a couple other items. Visit the bulletin board in the narthex and select gift tags for the items you would like to give. All gifts should be back at church by Wednesday, November 30. Emmanuel teens will wrap the gifts and assemble the boxes at their Christmas party next Sunday, December 4. If you have questions speak with Pastor Pflughoeft at (480) 291-2928.

Teen gift wrapping party

Every year, Emmanuel sends gifts to Sonora, Mexico, through Mission to the Children. This is done to share the love of Jesus with the kids of that community. Pastors Buchholz and Pflughoeft will deliver the gifts to Sonora, Mexico, along with some other people. While in Mexico, they will share with the children the real reason for the season, ¡Jesucristo nuestro Salvador nació en Belén! (Jesus Christ our Savior was born in Bethlehem!) Next Sunday, December 4, from 6:00 to 8:00 p.m., the teens of Emmanuel are invited to gather for a gift-wrapping party. We will wrap the presents to send down to Mexico. Then we will end the party with a white elephant gift exchange. All teens are welcome to join this evening of service and fun.

JOY Fellowship Christmas party

Save the date for the JOY Fellowship Christmas party on Thursday, December 8, at 12:00 p.m. at the home of Glenn and Ruth Derge (3540 South McClelland Drive, Chandler, Arizona 85248). There will be a catered luncheon, a gift exchange (under $15.00, participation voluntary), a devotion, songs, fun, and fellowship. A sign-up sheet and further information will be on the courtyard table. For further information, please contact Ellen Keeley at (480) 276-4056 or Wendy Binger at (480) 452-6169.

Emmanuel's Fine Arts in the community

Emmanuel's junior choir and instrumentalists (40+ singers/instrumentalists) will be performing Christmas carols at The Fantasy of Lights Boat Parade at Tempe Town Lake on Saturday, December 10. They will perform from 4:15 to 5:00 p.m. At 6:00 p.m., Emmanuel will also be part of the parade in the water and feature a boat decorated for all to see who we are. Join us for an afternoon/evening of family fun, good eats, and a dazzling boat parade with fireworks! This Tempe-sponsored event is free. More information can be found at www.downtowntempe.com/events/boat-parade.

Junior Choir on television

On Thursday morning, December 15, our junior choir has the unique opportunity to share their faith through song on TV! Good Morning Arizona on 3TV and CBS5, whose station is located in northern Phoenix, is giving us roughly a five-minute live segment. May the Lord bless this opportunity for our students and that this dark world can see the light of the gospel found here at Emmanuel. The exact air-time is to be announced.

Christmas for Kids

Mark your calendars for Saturday, December 17, from 9:30 to 11:30 a.m. for Christmas for Kids, all children, from 3 years old to 4th grade, are welcome to join us for a morning of fun, games, crafts, singing, and more. While the children spend the morning learning about the true reason for the season, Jesus' birth, parents are welcome to stay and have some coffee and donuts. Or, they can head out to go shopping or wrap presents. You can register your child for this free event at elctempe.org/christmas. (Children must be potty-trained.)

Men of His Word Conference

2023 Men of His Word Conference

The second annual Men of His Word Conference will be held at the Desert Willow Conference Center in Phoenix, Arizona, on Saturday, January 21, 2023. The theme of the one-day conference is Man up! In a man-down world. The day will include an inspirational keynote speaker, as well as smaller breakout discussion groups on different topics. All Emmanuel men are encouraged to attend and invite a friend for this encouraging day. You can get more information and register at menofhisword.org or by scanning the QR code.

2023 WELS National Conference on Lutheran Leadership

The second WELS National Conference on Lutheran Leadership will be held January 16-18, 2023, at the Hilton Chicago. This conference is not only for those who serve in formal leadership positions in their congregation: called workers, church council members, school board members, and the like. This conference is for anyone who is passionate about the mission of the church. It is for everyone who, by encouragement and example, wants to lead others to engage in that mission. So, all are welcome – called workers and laity, men and women, retirees and high school students, lifelong WELS members, and those new to the church. Learn more and register at lutheranleadership.com or scan the QR code.

Christian education hour

There will be no classes today because of the pancake breakfast, please join us next week when we resume our Sunday morning education hour.

PERSONAL PREPARATION FOR HOLY COMMUNION

A person should examine himself before eating of the bread and drinking from the cup. For anyone who eats and drinks without recognizing the body of the Lord eats and drinks judgment on himself. But if we judged ourselves, we would not come under judgment (1 Corinthians 11:28,29, 31).

The following questions for self-examination (adapted from various sources) may be helpful as you prepare to receive the Sacrament.

As we prepare to partake of the Holy Supper of our Lord Jesus Christ, it is appropriate that we diligently examine ourselves, as St Paul exhorts us. For this Sacrament has been instituted for the special comfort and strengthening of those who humbly confess their sins and hunger and thirst for righteousness.

But if we thus examine ourselves, we find nothing in ourselves but sin and death, from which we can in no way set ourselves free. Therefore our Lord Jesus Christ has had mercy upon us and has taken upon himself our nature, so that he might fulfill the whole will and law of God and for us and for our deliverance suffer death and all that we by our sins have deserved. In order that we should more confidently believe this and be strengthened in faith and cheerful obedience to his holy will, he has instituted the holy Sacrament of his Supper, in which he feeds us with his body and gives us to drink of his blood.

Therefore, whoever eats this bread and drinks this cup firmly believing the words of Christ, lives in Christ and Christ in him, and has eternal life.

We should also do this in remembrance of him, proclaiming his death – that he was delivered over for our sins and raised to life for our justification. Then with thankful hearts we commit ourselves again to take up our cross and follow him, keep his commandments, and love one another as he has loved us.

As you examine yourself, consider these questions before God, who searches the heart:

Q: Do you sincerely confess that you have sinned against God and deserved his wrath and punishment?

A: Truly you should confess, for Holy Scripture declares, "If we claim to be without sin we deceive ourselves, and the truth is not in us."

Q: Do you heartily repent of all your sins committed in thought, word, and action?

A: Truly you should repent, as did the penitent sinners: King David, who prayed for a contrite heart; Peter, who wept bitterly; the woman caught in adultery; the prodigal son; and others.

Q: Do you sincerely believe that God, by his grace, for Jesus' sake, forgives you all your sins?

A: Truly you should believe, for Holy Scripture declares, "For God so loved the world that he gave his one and only Son, that whoever believes in him should not perish but have eternal life."

Q: Do you promise that with the help of the Holy Spirit you will from this time forward amend your sinful life?

A: Truly you should so promise, for Holy Scripture declares, "No one who lives in him keeps on sinning," and Jesus himself declares, "If you love me you will obey what I command."

Personal prayer:

Lord Jesus, as a penitent sinner filled with joy and gratitude I now come to your table to receive the precious food of your life-giving body and blood. May it strengthen me to remain in you as you remain in me, so that I bear much fruit in devoted service to you and in acts of love and kindness to others. Amen.

ABOUT US

Emmanuel Lutheran Church shares the love of Jesus and the truth of his saving Word with the people in our church, our community and the world. The objectives of our mission are

- To preach, by proclaiming the Word of God, as we worship and praise God in a loving Christian atmosphere;
- To teach, by fostering an ongoing increase in knowledge and maturity in God's Word;
- To reach, by sharing the Gospel of God's Word with all people, and to do so;
- By each member actively participating in our ministry.
